The overall level obtained in the language assessment (English) is: C1 according to the CEFR

C1

You can understand long, complex speeches and texts and identify implicit, abstract and finer shades of meaning.

Your detailed English language levels in the assessed language competences are:

Reading Comprehension - C2

You can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works.

Listening Comprehension - C1

You can understand extended speech, including idiomatic and dialectal jargon, even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implicitly and not explicitly expressed. You can understand televised programmes and films without too much effort.

Grammar - B2

You understand relatively complex grammatical structures and the relationship between ideas, as indicated by high-level connecting devices.

Vocabulary - C1

Your good command of vocabulary on a broad range of general, academic, professional and leisure topics enables you to understand most written texts.

Key Communicative Phrases - C1

You can identify different degrees of nuances relating to emotions, satire, humour, subjectivity and objectivity, as well as shifting register in a wide range of socio-linguistic contexts. This includes recognising inferred meaning, even in the latest forms of written communication, such as internet chats and text-messaging.
